LOCAL BUSINESS SPACE LAUNCHES ADVANCE VIEWING

Businesses are being encouraged to leap into action this week and visit space in Brackley, Northamptonshire, on Friday, 12th June 2009 between 3pm and 7pm. The event is designed to encourage participation in The 'made locally' Week which will run from 6th to 11th July 2009.

Peter Rawlinson owner of space in Brackley explains:

"We are hosting a viewing at space so that companies interested in showcasing products and services during The 'made locally' Week can view space in advance, and discuss their participation in the event.

"We are also particularly keen to hear from businesses who are interested in sponsoring the networking evening we shall be hosting on Tuesday 7th July for local business owners between 6 and 9pm."

space in Brackley is a "pop-up" shop and is designed to be used as a short term retail venue. Whether you are launching a new product or need a room for an exhibition, space provides a blank canvas with which to work.

Located on the south side of Market Place in the centre of Brackley, space offers a cost effective, creative and flexible venue suited to attracting audiences in and around Oxford, Buckingham, Milton Keynes, Leamington Spa, Banbury, Bicester, and Northampton.

For further information on space and The 'made locally' Week please contact Peter Rawlinson on telephone 07590046469 or email peter@space-brackley.co.uk .

The 'made locally' Week will take place from 6th to 11th July 2009 in Brackley, Northamptonshire, and is designed to showcase and raise awareness of local talent, products and services.
